Editor's

Notes

Dear Readers,

Throughout this yearbook I have tried to capture the "essence" of Dillard- its students, faculty, activities, history, serenity, and beauty. This book depicts Dillard at its best.

The following pages show the dedication and commitment of the 1988-89 LeDiable Dleu staff. A special note of thanks is due the following persons: Tia Landry for putting up with my outlandish deadlines; Carl Jefferson for the front cover and picture development; Mrs. Debra Surtain for all her support and help; to my staff- Derik, Dee Dee, Adrienne, Shawana, Charisse, Alexa, Byron, Rhonda, Stephanie, Theo, Stacy, and Steve- you were all wonderful; Mr. and Mrs. Noel Blakey for their beautiful pictures; Mr. Peter Armstrong for helping me fill in the many empty spaces; and finally greatest of all God- who gave me the strength to complete this task.

I sincerely hope that you find the following pages enjoyable and that the "essence" of Dillard shines through.

Sincerely,
Robin J. Evans
Editor

essence of student life

This edition of Le Diable Bleu is dedicated to

Dr. Elton C. Harrison
Vice President for Academic Affairs
Vice President for Administration and Planning

Dr. Elton C. Harrison is a brilliant and remarkable educational administrator. He is innovative, creative, imaginative, and inexhaustible. But he is also fiercely loyal to the best of the great tradition of liberal and humane learning. In education, therefore, he combines constructive stability and creative change, innovation with the maintenance of the highest academic standards, and commitment to a rigorous and challenging curriculum with a profound sense of caring and concern for students.

Dr. Harrison's impact on the educational process and product at Dillard has been profound and enduring. It has also been University-wide, touching every aspect of the Dillard experience--students, faculty, staff, administration, trustees, alumni, and friends. His being at Dillard since August, 1975, has been one of this institution's greatest and richest blessings. His legacy is imperishable and will be enhanced with the passing years.

As long as there is a Dillard--and there must always be a Dillard, Dr. Harrison will be an integral part of its heart, soul, life, and destiny. Blessed is the educational institution that can claim the commitment, services, and loyalty of a Dr. Elton C. Harrison.

Dillard is blessed indeed, beyond measure. Thank you, Dr. Harrison for all of us of the Dillard Family.

Dr. Samuel DuBois Cook, President

Students are Dr. Harrison's priority, but he also finds time to contribute to the community as a whole.

In Memory
of
Daniel C. Thompson
(1912 – 1988)

On December 2, 1988 Professor Danil C. Thompson died. Thus ending 35 years of dedicated service to Dillard and the community.

Although he held the position of Vice-President for Academic Affairs and Chairman of Social Sciences at Dillard, Dr. Thompson was most noted for his teachings. He was a fellow at Oxford and Stanford Universities.

In additon to his family, Dr. Thompson is survived by the Dillard University family as well as countless students he so profoundly influenced. It is in the lives of these former students that we see the continuity of his commitment to the formation of "...a more perfect social order based upon freedom and justice for all in this nuclear age."

Jackson, Carey Jones, Joycelyn Rising, Dewayne Williams, Lisa Phillips.

The Baptist Student Union on Dillard University's campus shows that there are people who are willing to dedicate some of their time to the Lord while they're in school. The Baptist Student Union is an organization that keeps its members full of the Word of God with religions of all kinds welcomed. This is not an organization that's boring with "holier-than-thou" people; we have a lot of fun with our activities. There are socials to get new members involved in the B.S.U., musicals to get funds for the retreat which we attend every year, (this year it was Atlanta), and programs that help you "get the spirit" and lift up the name of God.

Your peers in the B.S.U. can also help in time of trouble. We know that school can sometimes be a burden on us and we need someone to talk to. There is Dr. Bivens and the other advisors that will talk to you whenever you need them. The Baptist Student Union also provides ways you can share your Christian concern for other students on our campus. We not only have a chance to minister to those on our college campus, but also to those in the community. The organization helps us to grow spiritually as sisters and brothers in Christ.

Busecon Society

The purpose of the Busecon Society is to unite business and Economic students and acquaint them with the problems in the business world. Membership is open to all students in the Division of Business in good standing, as determined by the department chairperson. Busecon's major on-campus activities are to have speakers from the business world to come and talk to students about current issues and new developments in business.

Drama Club

The Dillard University Drama Club was established in 1986 by Drama Professor, Florence A. Lyons, and a group of creative and dedicated students, who are now known as the Dillard University Players. The Drama Club has performed numerous plays ranging from comedies to dramas.

The Florida Gold Club is a club that consists of students from various cities in Florida. FGC was started in 1989 at Dillard University to promote student unity with other students from Florida as well as other states. We're hoping that this is the beginning of an organization that will never end.

Minority Access To Research Careers

MARC is a two-year reserch program. The program requires that students do research on their campus for a semester and for one summer away. This year's students are all Chemistry majors.

National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is a national organization which was founded in 1909. The purposes of the organization are as follows: To eliminate racial discrimination and segregation from all aspects of public life in America; To secure a free ballot for every qualified American citizen; To seek justice in the courts; To secure equal job opportunities based upon individual merit without regard to race, religion, or national origin; To secure legislation banning discrimination and segregation; and to end mob violence and police brutality. The NAACP chapter at Dillard University strives to increase the awareness of the plight of African-Americans in America. Discussion on current issues in society that affect us, and voter registration are two activities that our chapter participates in on a regular basis.

Peer Counselors

The Peer Counselors Student Organization was developed to assist entering students during Freshman Orientation. It provides new students with a Big Brother or Big Sister during this period of student transition from high school to college.

Pre-Law Club

Society established in the Fall of 1988, for students interested in the field of Law.

Psychology Club

The K.B. Clark Psychology Club was established at Dillard university in 1968. Its founders, a devout group of psychology majors at the time, were concerned with the social well-being of Negroes in their day. Their major thrust was to become more aware of and help alter the state of the people in the community. Today, the club is geared to exposing up and coming psychologists to the "real world." The psychology club was named after the most aspiring young black psychologist of that time, Kenneth B. Clark.

President- Dianne Kelly
 Vice-Pres.- Scharmaine Lawson
 Secretary- Lesa Gremillion
 Corresponding Sec.- Dedra Russell
 Treasurer- Debra Colar
 Parliamentarian/Chaplain- Stephanie Jackson

Student Government Association

The student body is composed of people from more than 30 states and the District of Columbia and several foreign countries. These students represent the SGA.

The aims of the SGA are: To work for the best interest of the students and the university, To promote student activities; To promote a closer understanding and more genuine cooperation between students and faculty members; To provide training in leadership; To represent the student body in its relationship with the University administration; and To instruct students to become responsible citizens of the University and the community.

Voices of Joy

In September, 1987, a group of Dillard students deemed it necessary to form an organization to proclaim the Gospel of Christ. The principle organizer, Sheva Sims, along with the help of others, saw to it that this vision would become a reality. The choir has grown tremendously. The name of the group, The Voices of Joy, was chosen because the members felt that it was their responsibility, as "children of God," to bring joy to the lives of everyone that the group came in contact with. The Voices of Joy has quickly become a recognized "true" gospel choir in the city of New Orleans and abroad.

Alpha Chi Honor Society

Alpha Chi is a co-education society whose purpose is to promote academic excellence and exemplary character among college and university students and to honor those achieving such distinction. Affiliated since 1955 with the Association of College Honor Societies, Alpha is the second oldest and second largest general honor society in the parent organization. Members of junior/senior maintaining an average of 3.5 in his/her respective division can qualify for membership.

Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society

Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society is a general honor society which is open to both junior and senior men and women from a wide variety of academic disciplines. It was admitted to membership in the Association of College Honor Societies in 1952.

It was founded in Nashville, Tennessee by representatives of six colleges which had already established local honor societies. The first meeting, called by the Founder, Dr. George W. Gore, Jr., was held in November, 1937, and hosted by Phi Beta Tau Chapter at Tennessee A&I State College.

In its process of growth and development, Alpha Kappa Mu has kept pace with the evolution of our social order. Many notable scholars have gone from its ranks to achieve eminence in the many facets of life that are important to progress. The dynamic leadership which has steered the organization over the past third of a century has been influential in helping to raise the academic standards on many college campuses.

Beta Kappa Chi Honor Society

The birth of Beta Kappa Chi began back in 1923 on the campus of Lincoln University in Pennsylvania by three devoted and inspired teachers. The development of new chapters on predominantly black campuses all over the nation led Beta Kappa Chi to hold its first national meeting in 1945. During the period 1953-1958, a chapter was established here at Dillard.

The purposes of the society are: To encourage and advance scientific education through original investigations; The dissemination of scientific knowledge; The stimulation of high scholarship in pure and applied science. These purposes should encourage those who are not members, to strive to become active members.

Phi Alpha Theta History Honor Society

Phi Alpha Theta is an organization designed to recognize and encourage excellence in the study of History. Phi Alpha Theta was founded at the University of Arkansas on March 14, 1921. It has approximately 456 chapters and approximately 72,000 members. Its magazine is The HISTORIAN.

Psi Chi National Honor Society in psychology signed its charter on September 4, 1929, in New Haven, Connecticut. It was founded by an aspiring group of young psychologists at the University of Kansas in the Spring of 1928. It is an organization aimed not only at "spotlighting" the achievements of established psychologists, but also at reassuring young up-and-coming psychologists of the academic advancement and/or potential. On May 10, 1973, Dillard University began the 332nd chapter of the Psi Chi National Honor Society. Psi Chi is an affiliate of the American Psychological Association and a member of the Association of College Honor Societies.

Sigma Pi Sigma Physics Society

Robert Pinkney

Sigma Pi Sigma was formed on April 22, 1968 from the Union of the American Institute of Physics (AIP), Student Sections, and Sigma Phi Sigma Honor Society. The Student Sections had been established as a part of the former Education and Manpower Division of AIP in 1950. At present there are about 450 active chapters of SPS on campuses across the nation. Approximately 6,000 students take part in the chapter activities, making SPS the fourth largest Physics society in the country.

Alpha Kappa Alpha

Alpha Kappa Alpha was founded in 1908 on the campus of Howard University. The purpose of Alpha Kappa Alpha is to provide an outlet for idealism and creativity, as well as to encourage individualism among women. High scholastics and good ethical standards are encouraged and unity and friendship is a definite must in maintaining a healthy and lively sisterhood. The main objective of the sorority is, service to all mankind and love for one another.

Alpha Phi Alpha

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. Initiators of the first Negro fraternity, the men of Alpha Phi Alpha continuously dawn "the light of the world" by striving toward the accomplishment of manly deeds, scholarship, and love for all mankind. Established on December 4, 1906 at Cornell University in Ithica, New York, Alpha Phi Alpha has progressed annually. Beta Phi Chapter, established at Dillard University on November 11, 1938 is proudly proclaimed as a "great link" in the progressively ideal fraternity.

Alpha Phi Omega

Alpha Phi Omega is now a national co-ed Service Fraternity. It was established in 1925 in Brainerd Hall, in Eastern Pennsylvania. The motive for instituting this organization was to initiate one which could withstand the test of time, an organization in which the members might better the conditions of others as well as themselves. The Chi Upsilon Chapter at Dillard University was founded in the spring of 1971.

Chi Eta Sorority, Inc. was founded on October 16, 1932 by eleven professional nurses. It is an international professional organization composed of registered and student nurses. The sorority was started on Dillard University's campus in 1975.

The puposes of the sorority are:

1. To encourage continuing education among members of the nursing profession.
2. To have a continuous recruitment program for nursing and the health profession.
3. To stimulate a close and friendly relationship among the members.
4. To develop a working relationship with other professional groups for the improvement and delivery of health care services.
5. To constantly identify a corps of nursing leaders within the membership who will function as agents of social change on the national, regional, and local level.

Delta Sigma Theta

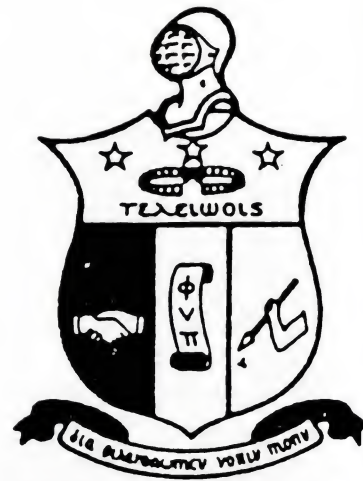

Delta Sigma Theta was founded on January 13, 1913 at Howard University in Washington D.C., by 22 women. The stated purpose of the founders was to establish a society to promote high cultural, intellectual, and moral standards among its members. They envisioned an organization of college women pledged to serious endeavor and community service. These women demonstrated a vital concern for social welfare, academic excellence, and cultural enrichment, de-emphasizing the social side of sorority life. Their ideas of scholarship and service have withstood the test of time, and today Delta Sigma Theta is a public service sorority, dedicated to a program of sharing membership skills and organizational services in the public interest.

Kappa Alpha Psi

Kappa Alpha Psi is the beautiful realization of a vision shared commonly by the late Reverend Founder Elder Watson Diggs (affectionately known as "The Dreamer"). John Milton Lee, Byron K. Armstrong, Guy L. Grant, Ezra D. Alexander, Henry T. Ashner, Marcus P. Blakemore, Paul Caine, Edward G. Irvin, and George W. Edmunds. It was the vision of these astute men which enabled them in the school year 1910-1911, more specifically the night of January 5, 1911, on the campus of Indiana University at Bloomington, Indiana, to sow the seed of a fraternal tree whose fruit is available to, and now enjoyed by college men everywhere, regardless of their color, religion or national origin. The Constitution of Kappa Alpha Psi is predicated upon, and dedicated to, the principles of achievement through a truly democratic Fraternity.

Pershing Rifles is a co-ed military fraternity that was organized in 1894 on the campus of the University of Nebraska. Its founder was brilliant infantryman, by the name of General John J. Pershing. Pershing Rifles inspires honor, loyalty to country, organization and the performance of greater deeds. Furthermore, the organization stresses physical fitness, precision drill and cohesiveness among its members.

Phi Beta Sigma

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. was founded at Howard University, Washington D.C., in 1914, on the principle of Brotherhood, Scholarship, and Service. Sigma also has its motto "Culture for Service and Service for Humanity."

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. is an international organization composed of collegiate and professional men with a membership of over 90,000 with 900 chapters throughout the United States, Canada, Germany, Africa, and Italy. Sigma men worldwide feel that they are a beacon light which all other men compare themselves. Epsilon Alpha Chapter is involved with many local service oriented activities such as the UNCF Walk-a-Thon, College Awareness, The Big Brothers of America, and the Easter basket give-away.

Omega Psi Phi

Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. was founded on Friday, November 17, 1911, on the campus of Howard University. The fraternity's founders were three students in the college of liberal arts: Edgar A. Love, Oscar J. Cooper, and Frank Coleman. Professor Ernest E. Just served as their faculty advisor. Omega's four cardinal principles are: Manhood, Scholarship, Perserverance, and Uplift. The fraternity motto is "Friendship is Essential to the Soul." Theta Sigma Chapter was founded at Dillard University in 1936 by the late Dr. Albert W. Dent, former president of the university.

Sigma Gamma Rho

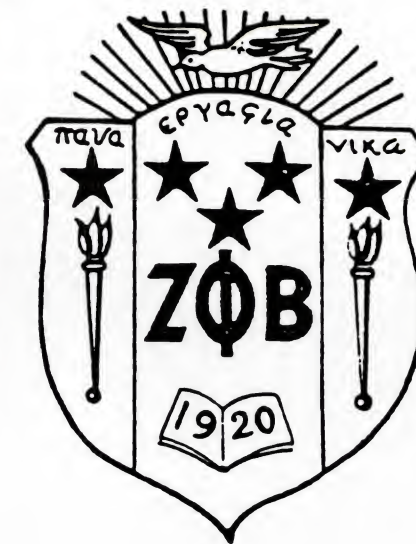

Venita L. Philmore

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc., was founded on the campus of Butler University in Indianapolis, Indiana, on November 12, 1922. "Greater Service, Greater Progress," is the motto by which Sigma Gamma Rho dedicates to higher education, community service and sisterly love.

Zeta Phi Beta

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was founded on January 16, 1920, at Howard University in Washington, D.C. by five women who felt that the campus would profit with the development of a sister organization to Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity. Zeta Phi Beta has expanded to encompass more than 500 graduate and collegiate chapters across the nation and was the first to a Greek-letter college sorority in Africa.

The Ladies of Alpha Beta chapter strive to uphold the sorority ideals of sisterly love, scholarship, service and Finer womanhood. The Chapter promotes projects which enhance a better quality of life on the campus and in the community. Such projects include adopt a grandparent, college life seminars for area high school students and volunteer tutorial programs.

Pan-Hellenic Council

The Pan-Hellenic Council, composed of two representatives from each organization, functions in order to develop a spirit of cooperation and fellowship among the various Greek-letter Organizations on the campus. All matters related to or concerning Greek life on campus are coordinated and cleared through the Pan-Hellenic Council

Dillard University Concert Choir

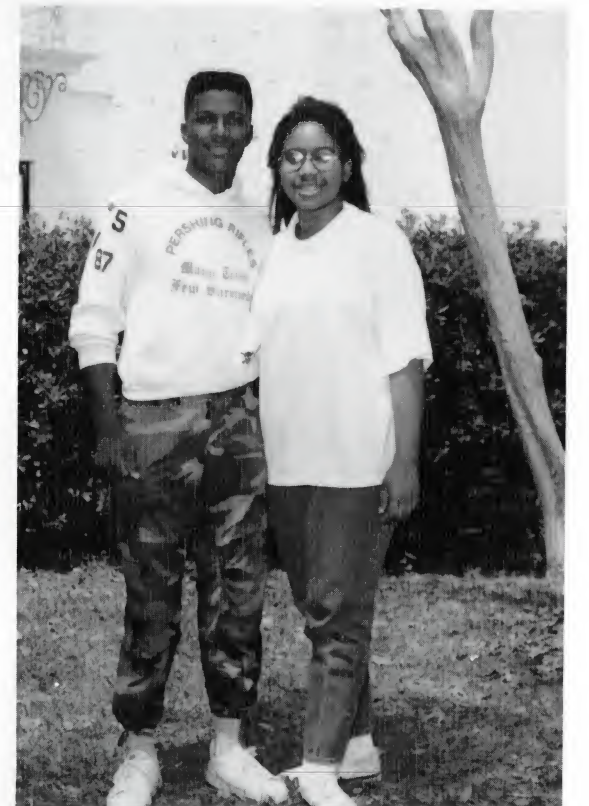

This choral unit is composed of forty-five voices selected from the university choir of one hundred voices. This Dillard Choral group has won acclaim wherever they have sung, having appeared in many parts of the country. Critics speak of their organ-like tone, their precise execution and their strong discipline.

The 1989 Spring Tour will take the Dillard University Choir to Houston, TX, Shreveport, LA, Dallas, TX, Wichita, KS, St. Louis, MS, Southbend IN, Chicago, IL, Anderson, IN, Dayton, OH, Nashville, TN, Birmingham, AL, and will conclude with their annual exchange concert with the Morehouse College Glee Club, in Atlanta, GA.

The choir repertoire includes classical works from the masters, popular songs, folk songs and spirituals. The choir is specializing this season in some Afro-American songs, and some pure African tunes.

The Afro-American songs as sung and interpreted by the Dillard group expresses an authenticity and a dignity that raise the songs to a level of simple but artistic beauty.

The Dillard Choir, under the direction of the renowned S. Carver Davenport, will bring to several communities across the United States a breath of freshness and beauty in music that will be appreciated by all.

Dillard University cheerleading squad is a representation of spirit. The 1988-89 squad was a perfect example of what spirit really is. They were outstanding when they performed as well as behind the scene. We should be and are very proud of them. They were an excellent team.
